Question Pattern Type : NonMatrix
Question Numbers : (1 to 5)

Read the following passage and answer the questions (1 to 5) that are given below.

To run up and down is but a form of busy idleness. The captains of industry who do the work of the world sit still, surrounded by bells and telephones. They show themselves furtively behind vast expanses of plate glass, and move only to eat or sleep. It is the common citizen of New York who is never quiet. He finds it irksome to stay long in the same place. Though his house may be comfortable, even luxurious, he is in a fever to leave it.
